Dear Mr. Thrush:

Thank you very much for your letter of 23 September inviting me to the annual Printing Week Dinner on 16 January to receive the Franklin Award for Distinguished Service.

I am genuinely honored by your invitation for me to attend this dinner and to be presented with the Industry's Franklin Award. It will be a great pleasure, indeed, for me to join you on this particular occasion, and I am certainly looking forward to meeting with you and the other members of your organization.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

Signed

Dear Mr. Thrush:

Thank you very much for your letter of 28 September inviting me to the annual Printing Week Dinner on 16 January and to receive the Franklin Medal for Distinguished Service.

I am genuinely honored by your invitation for me to join you at this dinner and to be presented with the industry's Franklin Award. I want you to know how much I appreciate the consideration given me by your Committee and it will be a great pleasure for me to attend on this particular occasion. I am certainly looking forward to meeting the members of your interesting organization.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
